

Good morning Sarasota Middle School Today is Monday, November 12, 2018

A few words of wisdom to start your day-Eleanor Roosevelt, was once asked what, if any, regrets she had about her life. Her humorous response came as quite a surprise. She responded:

I would have liked to have been prettier.

But beauty is only skin deep, right? Eleanor Roosevelt's fit to the world was the beauty of her wisdom. Here are a few words of wisdom:

You gain strength, courage and confidence by every
Experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face.
You must do that which you think you cannot do.

So here's the challenge for today: Be courageous. Notice what stops you from realizing our full potential. Are you afraid of something? If you are, look fear in the face, then make it a great day...or not. The choice is yours.

Everyone-please join the SMS Future Business Leaders for a spirit night tonight at Tijuana Flats from 5-8pm. 20% of your purchase will be donated back to FBLA! See Mrs. Moriarty or a FBLA member to get a flier!

Students-picture retake day is Thursday. Picture forms are available in the front office.

Students-you are invited to join our monthly Book Club meeting this Wednesday, Nov. 14, 8:15 AM, in Marta Boyle's classroom, 601. We would love to have you join us. We always have doughnuts and books to raffle.

All busses have arrived on time and all students should be in their 1st period class at this time.

Students, remember our Panther Pact: be Polite, Prepared, Productive and Safe!

Have a Marvelous Monday!
