

Good morning Sarasota Middle School Today is Tuesday, March 5, 2019

A few words of wisdom to start your day-

Every day, we make many choices. Some choices are very small, like deciding whether to take the chocolate or the vanilla ice cream; and some are very big, like deciding whether to do the right thing or not.

Now listen to what American statesman William Jennings Bryan once said:

Destiny is not a matter of chance, it is a matter of choice.

Our destiny is basically our destination in life-where we are headed. Mr. Bryan is saying that our choices determine our final destination...they determine the outcome of our lives.

If you want to create a successful and happy future, pause for a moment today and ask yourself this: Are my choices taking me in the right direction?

Attention National Junior Honor Society members: our next meeting is this Friday, March 8, at 8:45 in the cafeteria. See you there!
